COMPLETE SPECIFICATION.

An Improved Self-raising Flour.

HENRY JAMES FORD, Baker etc. of Upper Stratton near Swindon Wilts do hereby declare the nature of this invention and in what manner the same is to be performed, to be particularly described and ascertained in and by the following statement:—

My invention of an improved self-raising flour is really a substitute for barm baking powder or the like, used in the making of unfermented cakes pastry and simular food. Made by thoroughly mixing the undermentioned ingredients viz. $\frac{1}{4}$ lb. of cream of tartar, $\frac{1}{4}$ lb. of carbonate of soda, 1 lb. ground semolina and $\frac{1}{8}$ of oz. of dried ground saffron, to each and every 20 lbs. of ordinary flour, when using the aforesaid ingredients I intimately mix them in a dry state with the ordinary flour.

Having now particularly described and ascertained the nature of my said invention & in what manner the same is to be performed I declare that what I claim is :—

1. The use of $\frac{1}{8}$ oz. of dried ground saffron to each and every 20 lbs. of ordinary flour.
2. The use of 1 lb. of ground semolina to each and every 20 lbs. of ordinary flour, in conjunction with cream of tartar, carbonate of soda as aforesaid described.

Dated this 13th November 1895.

HENRY JAMES FORD.
